

Zhou Enlai Deng Yingchao's 520 (I love you)

Poem inscribed by Mr. Zhao Puchu: In their lifetime, they had long been universally known as a model couple. In the great revolutionary cause of overthrowing the three mountains and creating a new China, they struggled together through difficulties and established great achievements, and such a couple is rare in history. They treated themselves seriously, things seriously and people sincerely, and their virtues were very similar. Zhou Enlai and Deng Yingchao are immortal people!
